Korian employees on strike against the working conditions in one of its nursing home in Vottem, Belgium

Korian's response

Korian answered to Vigeo Eiris on 20 September 2021:

"Despite the strike, Korian continued the open discussions with the labour unions and managed to give them the proper comfort as to staffing as well as to the communication flow going forward. Monthly Korian meets with the syndical delegation to discuss in all transparency all relevant financial, operational and HR-related topics."
