

Professor Antoine Piau is appointed Medical Director, Ethics and Health Innovation for the Clariane Group, and a member of the Group's General Management Committee.

As of September 1, 2023, Professor Antoine PIAU will join the Clariane Group as Medical Director, Ethics and Health Innovation and member of the General Management Committee.

Professor Antoine Piau, a geriatrician and University Professor at Toulouse University Hospital, specializes in prevention in the field of aging.

In particular, he has worked with the French National Authority for Health (Haute Autorité de Santé), directed various research projects for the CNRS and INSERM, and is an expert for the European Commission and ORCATECH (the Oregon Centre for Ageing & Technology) in the USA.

He has also headed several hospital and regional bodies, including the telehealth unit at Toulouse University Hospital and the Innov'Pôle Santé center, a regional structure for public-private partnerships in innovation, of which he was vice-president.

He will continue to contribute to IHU Health Age's research projects on digital aspects and new healthcare pathways, in addition to his new duties.

He will succeed Dr Didier Armaingaud, who has been appointed Director of Clariane Compétences, effective September 1, 2023.

About Clariane

Clariane is Europe's leading community for care in times of fragility. It is present in 7 countries: Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain and the United Kingdom.

With their different areas of expertise, the Group's 67,000 professionals work every year for over 800,000 patients and residents in three main areas of activity: nursing homes (Korian, Seniors Residencias, Berkley, etc.), healthcare facilities and services (Inicea, Ita, Grupo 5, Lebenswert, etc.) and home and alternative living (Petits-fils, Les Essentielles, Ages&Vie, etc.).

In June 2023, Clariane became a company with a mission, and its bylaws include a new raison d'être, common to all its activities: "To care for the humanity of each person in moments of fragility".
